GOVERNOR ARRIVED.

He Will Formally Review the Second Regiment in Camp Aycock To-day.

A RECEPTION AND BALL.

Military Function at Seashore Hotel Promises to be Largely Attended by Soldiers and Civilians—Late Train From the Beach.

Camp Aycock, Wrightsville, July 29.

The most noteworthy event in camp since Saturday was the arrival this evening of North Carolina's distinguished Governor, Charles B. Aycock, who is here to officially review the Second Regiment—"the finest in the State Guard" as it is peculiarly called by the boys now in camp. The Governor arrived at Wilmington on the 6 P. M. train from Raleigh and was received at the station by Col. A. Williams, assistant adjutant general; Col. F. A. Macon, quartermaster general; Major C. C. Bunch, assistant quartermaster general; Col. T. H. Bain, Col. S. J. Cobb, Col. Walker Taylor, Maj. C. H. Waite and other of the regimental and State Guard officers in camp and in the city. Accompanying the governor were several of his aides and the party was taken through to camp from Wilmington on a special train.

At the Sound station Governor Aycock was met by the Second Regiment Band and a military escort, which conducted him into camp amid cheers of the patriotic boys inhabiting the tented city bearing his name. Soon after his arrival in camp, Governor Aycock gave an informal reception to the officers and men of the "Second" at regimental headquarters. He was in excellent humor and appeared pleased with the camp and its conduct. He will spend to night here but to-morrow after a review of the regiment, he will go to the Seashore Hotel and remain until the coming of the First Regiment next Monday. The formal review of the Second Regiment will take place at 6:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon but during the early part of the day the Governor will make a number of informal inspections of the camp, rifle pits, etc., all of which are in splendid condition.

The crowning social event of the entire encampment will take place to-morrow (Tuesday) night at the Seashore Hotel. Beginning a 9 o'clock the Governor will give a reception to his friends and the military, and immediately following the reception Manager Hinton, of the "Seashore," will give a grand military ball in compliment to the officers of the Second Regiment The music will be by the unexcelled Hollowbush's Orchestra, which is regularly engaged at the hotel. A late train for the Sound and city will leave the beach at midnight, thus affording every opportunity for a large attendance. As the Second Regiment breaks camp on the following day, conforming to the usual custom, it will be much of a holiday for the officers and soldiers and many will avail themselves of the festivities of the occasion.

The military escort of the Governor from the Wrightsville station to camp this afternoon was the First Battalion under Major Griswold and, as stated above, the Second Regiment Band. The Governor's arrival was heralded by the booming of seventeen guns. Later in the evening the band serenaded the Governor at regimental headquarters.

Perhaps the most important feature of to-morrow's programme in camp, aside from the formal review of the regiment by the Governor, will be a sham battle at morning drill. Four thousand cartridges will be issued for the "fight" and a lively encounter is expected. The following order issued this evening provides for the battle:

Headquarters Second Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, Camp Aycock, July 29.

General Order No. 38:

At morning drill to-morrow July 30, Maj. Griswold will take his battalion to the mouth of Bradley's Creek and defend the same. The First and Second Battalions under command of Major Bond will attack the Third Battalion from same point.

The quartermaster general will issue fifteen rounds of blank cartridges to each man in Major Griswold's battalion, twelve rounds to each man in Major Bond's battalion and ten rounds to each man in Major Bragaw's battalion. By order of COLONEL W. B. RODMAN.

C. McD. DAVIS, Captain and Adjutant.

Order No. 29 details Private Ed. Bailey, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, as orderly for the Governor and commander in chief.

The uniforms for review to-morrow are prescribed in Order No. 30 as campaign hats, blouses, white collars, trousers, leggings and white gloves.

Captain J. W. Cotten was officer of the day to-day; Lieutenant J. VanB. Metts, senior officer of the guard, and Lieutenant Edward Wood, of the Oak City Guards, junior officer of the guard.

The regiment will break camp Wednesday.

Lieutenant Z. M. Potts, of the Washington Light Infantry, had a severe sunstroke yesterday morning. He is recovering rapidly now, but is still confined to his tent.

Captain J. J. Bernard and Lieutenant Moore, of the Raleigh "Governor's Guard," Third Regiment, were in camp yesterday.

The german to-morrow night will be led by Major H. C. Bragaw, of the Second Battalion.

The Sampson Light Infantry, Company H, Second Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, entertained a number of friends at tea Sunday evening. Among the guests were Misses Nettie and Laura Chesnutt, Kate and Lillie Draughan, of Clinton; Mrs. Robert Boykin, of Wilson; Capt. C. D. Harriss and Lieutenants Ward and Stronach, of Company E, Raleigh. The Sampson Light Infantry is one of the most popular in camp. It is well officered, and at Sunday evening's dress parade its line was one of the most perfect in review. The men are all clever and courteous, and are pleasantly remembered by Wilmington people as having been with them in the "turbulent" days of November, 1898.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN ACADEMY.

Prof. Counts Resigned as Principal to Go to South Carolina—The Faculty Now.

The many friends in Wilmington of Prof. E. O. Counts, for several years principal of St. Paul's Lutheran Academy of this city, will learn with regret that he has decided to leave Wilmington to take the principalship of a high school at Prosperity, S. C. Prof. Counts and family will leave for their new home to-day and accompanying them will be the best wishes of very many people.

During the coming session of St. Paul's Academy, which opens September 30th, Miss Lizzie Weimar, of Weimar, S. C., who has been a valued member of the faculty during the past two years, will be principal of the school and she will have as her assistants Rev. Dr. A. G. Voigt, the popular pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and Miss Lizzie Otten, both of whom have been formerly connected with the institution and have assisted in bringing it to the foremost ranks of the best preparatory schools in the city. The only change in the curriculum of study is that there will in the future be only seven grades, while before there were nine.

LOCAL DOTS.

—A case of diphtheria was quarantined yesterday at No. 315 Harnett street.

— The cutter Algonquin was up to the city yesterday for coal and supplies preparatory to a cruise this week to Hatteras.

— British schooner Melrose arrived yesterday from Baltimore for a cargo of shingles from the B. F. Keith Company.

— Mr. Henry G. MacFarland has resigned his position in the car accountant's office of the A. C. L. and will engage in truck farming near Burgaw.

— The Organ Fund Society of Grace M. E. Church, will run an excursion to Carolina Beach on all trips trips of the steamer Wilmington to-day.

— An order has just been placed with the Fishblate Clothing Company for handsome white caps with oil cloth covers for the street railway conductors and motormen.

— Mr. Ike Bear presented the fruit editor with two peaches of great size yesterday. The interesting feature is the fact that they came from a tree in the yard of his father, Mr. Sam. Bear, Sr., of this city.

Work Brisk at Charleston.

Contractor Thad F. Tyler who has a large contract for remodelling the St. John's Apartment House and the Hotel Argyle at Charleston, S. C., came over Sunday and returned yesterday. He says there is much building in progress at Charleston, all in preparation for the West India Exposition next year. The Wilmington Iron Works, of this city, has recently secured an $8,000 contract for plumbing etc., there and is now negotiating for a contract to install a large steam heating system in one of the large hotels in Charleston.

James Walker Memorial Hospital.

The STAR learns that it is the plan of the Board of Managers of the James Walker Memorial Hospital to furnish the recently completed building by popular subscriptions. There have been a number of applications by citizens to endow certain rooms and wards in the building, and these endowments are now being arranged. The new building will not be opened until it is furnished, and will be used for whites only. The old hospital building will be used for colored persons.

Wilmington Live Stock Company.

The Wilmington Live Stock Company, headed by those enterprising gentlemen, Messrs. F. T. Mills and W. B. McClellan, is going steadily forward with the development of its live stock farm in East Wilmington. The contract was let last week to Contractor F. A. Applegate for the erection of a large and conveniently appointed barn on the premises to house the tons and tons of unexcelled forage that is raised on the farm.

The Rat and the Mink.

Mr. A. B. Cook, the veteran Cape Fear ferryman, has a good rat and mink story. Saturday night he set a trap for rats. One of the wily animals was caught, when next came a mink. He went into the trap, ate the rat and found himself a prisoner. It was almost a case of the "house that Jack built" and the "mink that ate the rat that went into the trap," etc., etc.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 29.—The champions inaugurated the week gloriously to-day by taking a hard fought game from Charlotte. It is useless to chronicle any particular inning and that the victors were "in it," for they started off at the very jump. "Brownie" Martin, the Hornets' first twirler, was hit hard and often, and in the fourth he was knocked out of the box. Hooker succeeded him and while he fared some better, yet the Champions hit him almost at when desired. Stewart was also hit hard but it did not happen until the game was chinced and then it was only in one inning. All the Champions hit well and dispensed with a lavish hand the ginger snaps from the ginger jar of the Horse Editor of the STAR.

To morrow a double header will be played, Regan and Allen officiating for the visitors and, in all probability, Bass and Lipp for the locals.

About five hundred dollars changed hands on the game here to-day.

Welcome News For Wilmington.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 29.—To night the Tarboro team protested Umpire Meade, and this has also been done by Wilmington. Under the rules of the Virginia-North Carolina League this will remove Meade. It is not known whom President Higgs will now appoint, though the name of ex-Pitcher Weeks has been suggested.

It Was a Veritable Battle of the Bats.

— Oh! for another umpire like Mace.

— Why didn't our boys save some of those 19 hits for another game?

— The Giants didn't have to beat the Hornets and Meade both yesterday.

— Hits: Wilmington, 19; Charlotte, 12. It was a veritable battle of the bats.

— They do say that Regan looks like an anaconda when he coils himself up in the box.

— Do what they will, the other teams cannot keep the Giants out of the eleven extra games.

— "There was rejoicing at" Wake Court House last night and Rhamkatt was illuminated.

— Vorhees is better off now than he ever was, although he has been walking over diamonds for several years.

— An umpire who makes more errors than the players is not competent to fill the position. Such is Meade.

— The derrick and the ginger snaps were used to manifest advantage by the Giants yesterday. Try 'em again, boys.

— Tarboro must have played at a disadvantage yesterday. It had to play a Raleigh infielder behind the bat.

— Col. Osteen seems to be seeking no notoriety in the "public prints" of Florence just now. "Oh! no, we never mention 'em."

— The Loggerheads won from the Tartars yesterday but the latter will even up to day if they can fill Foster's place as catcher.

— Stafford is still piling up for New Orleans those two-base hits he carried from Wilmington in his pocket. Bob was "powerful" stingy with his hits here.

— The money that the STAR suggested be raised to pay the fines imposed on Thackara and Devlin will be ready for the boys on their arrival Thursday.

— The "fans" in Wilmington rejoice that Meade as an umpire is no more. Yet people say he "was one of the fairest of the fair."

— The work of cleaning up the outfield of the grounds at Hilton was begun yesterday, and everything will be in ship shape condition for the teams Thursday.

— A New Orleans paper says: "Stanley, the Pelicans' new pitcher, is expected to reach the city in a day or two." No doubt, this is Raleigh's "smashed idol."

— The STAR is glad to hear that Pitcher Vorhees has fallen heir to $60,000. Now, "Cy," don't encourage that Raleigh rooterina by becoming, in reality, the "disdainful Vorhees."

— Fayetteville will play Marion and Darlington, S. C., Thursday and Friday of this week. The Observer gives Sweeney, pitcher, and Gwaltney, catcher, among the list of the Fayetteville players.

— Our Raleigh letter will be read with interest by all baseball men. The STAR regrets the loss of Foster to Tarboro, but hopes Manager Bryan will press his case against Kain to a successful conclusion. The stealing of players should be stopped.

— Our correspondent states that about $500 changed hands on the result of the game at Charlotte. The wagers were doubtless almost entirely between Charlotte sports. Those boys up there will bet on anything from the number of beans in a jar to a horse race.

— Clayton and Devlin led in batting yesterday, each having basted out three hits and of six times up. Every other man on the team got a couple of hits except Frost. "Jack," however, is not to be discounted because he didn't hit yesterday. He is one of the very best sluggers on the team.

— Raleigh News and Observer of 27th: "Umpire Meade received much attention yesterday from both teams and from the bleachers and grand stand. His decisions on strikes and fouls and bases seemed to run against the ideas of many on several occasion, and twice he turned down Red Birds at bases they had plainly gained. No one doubts Mr. Meade's efforts to do right, but if he proposes to continue as an umpire he must brighten up his peepers and move around so he can see what is going on."

Turtles Took Game from Tarboro.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 29.—The demoralization of the Tarboro team by reason of the departure of Foster gave the Turtles an easy victory to day. The score:

PASSENGER AGENTS WILL MEET.

Important Session to be Held at Seashore Hotel by Railroad Men.

An important adjourned meeting of the General and Division Passenger Agents' of the railway systems of the United States will be held for three days, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning, at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach. There will be 16 or 18 of the most prominent passenger agents in the country, with their clerks, in attendance and an enthusiastic meeting is expected.

It is quite a compliment to Wrightsville and the Seashore Hotel to secure such a meeting as this, as the sessions are usually held at the more famous watering places North. Manager Hinton will, however, give those in attendance upon the meeting every attention possible and will try to provide a pleasant time for all.

For the convenience of the passenger agents a telegraph instrument has been installed in the hotel, and every other facility needed will be furnished. In the party are the following well known railroad men: O. H. Roger, E. A. Hotchkiss, C. R. Capps, W. H. Fitzgerald, W. J. Craig, E. O. Neill.

Week-Day Excursion to Southport.

At the request of many patrons, Capt. W. A. Sanders, the clever master of the steamer Compton, has decided to run an excursion to Southport and to sea on Thursday, leaving the city at 9 A. M. and returning early in the evening. Capt. Sanders is going to make of it an "old time" family excursion with a special apartment on the boat for the nurses and babies, so that nobody will be inconvenienced and everybody will have a good time. Read the advertisement.

For the Superior Court.

There were three commitments to the county jail yesterday. Peter Drake and George Hurst, both colored, went over from the municipal court, the first named for the highway robbery of the negro huckster, Galloway, and Hurst for the larceny of a watermelon from a Brunswick sharpie tied up at the wharf. Boss White, colored, was sent over by Justice Bornemann for trial to-day on the charge of assault and battery.

Cotchett-Wootten Marriage.

Invitations were received by friends in the city yesterday from Mr. and Mrs. George Pratte Cotchett to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nesfield Green Cotchett to Lieutenant J. Bradley Wootten, U. S. A., at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, August 1st, at St. James' Episcopal church.

BASEBALL SENSATION

Manager Barley Kain, of Darlington Team, Arrested in Raleigh Sunday

FOR KIDNAPPING FOSTER.

Henry Bryan Will Not Give Up "Reddy" Without a Lawsuit and South Carolina Magnate in Custody of Officer—Novel Suit.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 29.—Manager Barley Kain, of the Darlington, S. C., baseball team was arrested here last night under the famous Peg Leg Williams law prohibiting the enticing of employes from their employers. He came here to get "Reddy" Foster, catcher for the Tarboro team and was arrested at the Union depot after he had gotten his man and passed in through the gate with punched tickets waiting for his train, which was an hour late. Had the train been on time he would have slipped off scot free with his man.

Kain was in the hands of the police all night and has not yet given bond which is fixed at $100. Manager Bryan, of the Tarboro team, is also taking steps to institute civil proceedings against Kain for damages sustained by his team in the loss of Foster who left here this morning for Darlington to join that team. He was accompanied by Pitcher Thomas, of the Darlington team, who was here with Kain but against whom no warrant could be issued for he seemed to have taken no active hand in the scheme to steal Foster.

Manager Bryan, of the Tarboro team, says that he could have sold Foster to the New Orleans team for $300 and he is willing to compromise the matter and stop the prosecution for this amount. The law entitles him to double the amount of actual damages which he estimates would run up to $350 so that he could recover $700. In addition to this there is a criminal penalty which amounts to thirty days imprisonment and $200 fine.

Kain and Foster contend that the law does not apply to their case for the reason that when the team was transferred from Norfolk to Tarboro, Norfolk owed him ten days' pay which was never paid, that no contract has been signed with Tarboro and the Norfolk contract has been forfeited by the non payment of the back salary.

The proceedings against Kain is certainly novel as applied to baseball managers but James H. Pou, attorney for Manager Bryan, of the Tarboro team, says it certainly applies.

The reason Kain and Thomas came here after Foster instead of simply sending him the money to come was that they recently wired Foster $50 and his ticket to come to Darlington after he had agreed to come for that consideration and Foster had kept the money and failed to show up. Foster says he returned the money.

Manager Bryan says he is determined to break up the practice of South Carolina and other teams of forever picking at the players in the North Carolina league which has been a source of so much annoyance all during the season.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 29.—[Later] Barley Kain put up $100 bond cash telegraphed from Darlington, S. C., and left on the 7:30 o'clock train to night for his home, before Manager Bryan of the Tarboro team had completed his arrangements to institute civil proceedings for $300 damage, which he declared his purpose to do. Manager Bryan has telegraphed to Philadelphia for Lehman to take Reddy Fosters' place behind the bat. He will arrive to morrow. Phillips caught for Tarboro in the game with Raleigh to-day.

[By Associated Press.]

RALEIGH, N. C., July 29.—Barley Kain, formerly manager of the Richmond team of the Virginia-North Carolina league, now of the Darlington, S. C., club, was arrested here Sunday for inducing Foster, catcher for the Tarboro team to jump his contract. Kain was in an officer's charge all night and until this afternoon when $100 was telegraphed him from Darlington, which he deposited in place of a bond for his appearance here at court. He and Foster have gone to Darlington.

"OUR CY." IN GREAT LUCK.

Wealthy Aunt Leaves Former Wilmington Ball Player a Snug Fortune.

A dispatch from Atlantic City, New Jersey, says:

"A fortune of $60,000 has fallen to Henry Burke Voorhees, better known among the 'fans' at the baseball park as 'Cy.' It was left him by an aunt some time ago and he received notice of it to day for the first time. Voorhees is really the pet of the local ball team. He is a graduate of Oberlin and Syracuse Colleges, and for two years taught in the colleges of Virginia. When asked as to his intentions he said: 'I will keep right on playing ball. I will spend a part of it on a trip through Europe, and devote the rest to a scheme I have been fostering for a long time.' The fact is, 'Cy' has histrionic ambitions. He wants to emulate DeWolf Hopper, whom he admires greatly. He will during his trip to Europe take vocal lessons."

Delightful Week-Day Excursion.

At the request of many patrons Capt. Sanders announces a week day excursion on the steamer "Compton" to Southport and to sea on Thursday, leaving the city at 9 A. M., and returning in the evening, so as to allow seven hours in Southport. Fare for the round trip only 25 cents. Patrons may remain at Southport or go to sea as they desire.

BY WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 30.

RUSSIA AS A COTTON MANUFACTURER.

The growth of the cotton manufacturing industry in the South is considered wonderful and, taking everything into consideration, it is, but it is not so wonderful as the growth of this industry in Russia. When the Russians began to build mills they had to import every pound of cotton they manufactured, and at that time there was no prospect that they could produce cotton within the Russian domain, for they had never tried it, but when the trans-Siberian Railway made Southern Siberia accessible the Government concluded to try the experiment of cotton growing there, sent to this country for seed and men who understood the culture and manipulation, and the experiments proved so successful that now they produce about half as much as the mills require and in a few years more, with the present rate of increase, will produce more than the 206 mills now in operation can work. But, as in the South, the milling business is young yet and the probabilities are that within the next ten years the number of mills will be doubled and that Siberia will produce not only cotton enough to meet the requirements of the mills, but a surplus for export.

In view of the fact that Russia was not a cotton producing country, nor a manufacturing country in any sense, when she entered upon this industry it may seem somewhat strange that she entered upon it so earnestly. But it isn't. There is no Government in Europe that plans more for the future, that looks further ahead, or more persistently pursues plans adopted, even when encountering apparently insurmountable obstacles. This is illustrated in the building of the trans-Siberian railway, and the system of roads of which that will be the main trunk and center. That enterprise was a pet scheme of the grandfather of the present Emperor, who is following it up as zealously as if it had been a command laid upon him. This road reaching from St. Petersburg to the Pacific, has opened a vast territory of unbounded agricultural possibilities, with its immense forests and mines of iron and coal, all that is necessary to make Russia a great manufacturing nation, eventually building her own machinery for railroads, for the farm, and shop, and rolling her rails, for all of which she is now dependent upon other countries, a very large percentage of which comes from this country.

The population of Russia is now about 136,000,000 and is increasing at the rate of a million a year, so that even the home market, to supply the wants of 140,000,000 people, say, offers large inducements to manufacturers. If Russia should carry her tariff retaliation on this country so far as to impose practically prohibitory duties, as this country does, that, of course, would stimulate the building of manufactories, and we would in a short while find our trade with Russia dwindled down to little or nothing. But it will not be only in Russia that we will feel that but in all that portion of China which Russian power and influence dominates.

To what extent that power and influence may be felt is one of the things that must be developed with time but there is one thing morally certain and that is that Russia is not going to be content with the footing she may get in Northern China, but will move onward as the opportunity presents until her power and influence will be felt in the very heart of the empire. Ever since the Japanese-Chinese war she has been playing to checkmate Japan, and so far has succeeded pretty well. She doesn't want Japan to get a footing on the continent, because Japan which has ambitions of her own and is aggressive and gritty and might give her trouble and make it much more difficult for her to play her game in China. And so she will, in as far as she can, checkmate the plans of other Powers to acquire large domain or much power in China. They may talk about the "open door," but while they are talking Russia is making an open door for herself and one that she will keep open for herself.

This is something which interests all maritime nations, and this country in particular, for Russia is now a good market for a number of American manufactures, especially machinery, and we look to China as a coming market for many of our products. We have been making calculations on building up a large cotton trade in China, and we have been assured that this is to be a profitable field for the Southern manufacturer, but Russia has never been taken fully into account in counting up the possibilities of that trade. How formidable she may become as a competitor in the cotton trade on that side of the globe may be seen by the following figures, showing the progress she has made in that industry, which we clip from the Atlanta Constitution:

"The cotton manufacturing industry of Russia is now equal to that of the Southern States of America—6,000,000 spindles.

"From the last report of the Russian minister of finance concerning the cotton industry of Russia it appears that the quality of cotton worked by Russian mills in 1899 was 877,792,000 pounds Russian and 397,232,000 pounds foreign, valued at $79,220,000. The works employed over 6,000,000 spindles, 146,000 weaving looms, 109 spinning mills and 118 weaving works, producing 595,568,000 pounds of yarn, valued at $137,720,000, and 397,232,000 pounds of coarse stuff, worth $134,630,000. These mills furnished employment for 170,000 workmen and 150,000 were engaged in the weaving works. The amount of capital invested is $137,505,000. The average number of spindles in each factory is 56,000 and about 102 pounds per spindle are used. The Russian working day is a long one. Taking the number of working days in the year as 295, the average number of working hours of one spindle was, in 1899, 4,503 per year, or 15.8 per day.

"The average number of yarn manufactured in Russia equals 27; Nos. 30 and 34 of warp and 34 to 38 of woof necessary for the fabrication of coarse calico are in greatest demand. Although the manufacture of the higher numbers of yarn has made considerable progress in recent years, greater development is retarded by the high price of the weaving machines, which are almost exclusively imported. There is a gradual annual increase in the number of looms, and while the law of 1897 decreased the number of hours each loom should be run their productive capacity increases. The development of the Russian weaving and dyeing production is sufficient to satisfy not only the national demand, but also that of the east. The Asiatic import of Russian cotton tissues increases yearly.

"The effect of Secretary Gage's blacklisting of Russia is to place a premium on this organization of opposition to cotton factories in the South. If the United States enters upon a policy of trade Ishmaelitism, so can its victims. In this way a legitimate American trade will be crippled by the desire to build up exotic lines of industry."

Is there any doubt as to the competing capacity of a country which can make such a remarkable showing as this within a few years? The Russian millers will have the advantage in transportation, with railroads running to all the markets they seek, which will carry Russian manufactures at the bare cost of handling, for these roads are under government ownership and control and are regarded merely as auxiliaries to development and industrial progress.

It is the Cossack, and not the Briton or German, that we will have the trade tussle with in Asia.

A REBUKE FROM A REPUBLICAN ORGAN.

Commenting upon the importation of negroes from Alabama to take the places of strikers in the Latrobe Steel and Coupler Works, near Chicago, which threatened trouble, and coupling this with the riot and bloodshed that followed the importation of colored laborers to take the place of striking coal miners at Pana, Ill., two years ago, the Philadelphia Press administers the following rebuke:

"The exhibition of barbarism, when innocent men are seeking work to earn their daily bread were shot down like cattle in the shambles, should have been enough for one generation. The conditions leading to it ought never to have been repeated. It should be laid down as an indisputable principle that any man, white or black, has the right to seek work wherever he can find it and that he should be protected in his efforts by the civil authorities. The black man has just as much right to come North and obtain employment as the white man has to go South and work. But when a strike is prevailing and labor is in an irritated and excitable condition it is not discreet to add to the flame or increase the bitterness of race prejudice by unnecessarily bringing white and colored laborers into conflict.

"Northern people have been taught for generations that there ought to be no distinctions as to color; that a black laborer has just the same rights as a white laborer. Tons of advice have been given the South on this subject and its treatment of colored laborers has been subjected to the harshest criticism. After all these years of preaching it is a humiliation to see the colored man, honestly seeking work treated more brutally in the North than he is in the South. It is an exhibition of hypocrisy and Pharisaism that will offset much of the claims to superiority which the North has paraded. And the most discouraging feature of the case is that there was no need of such an exhibition. Colored laborers are constantly coming North, and in most cases they are welcomed and find work, but they are brought here at a time of irritation and to add excitement to a strike.

"If bloodshed follows at Melrose Park and race prejudice is intensified it will be the fault or those who have been indiscreet enough to bring the two race into conflict at a time when the worst passions of each are aroused. At such a time it is the aim of the sagacious and discreet to allay bad feeling and not increase it."

We remarked when it was reported that arrangements had been made to import these negroes from Alabama, that if it was the purpose of the company to provoke collision and riot they were proceeding in a way to do it, but happily they were prevailed upon to change their minds, and those negroes who had been imported were sent back to their homes, and the impending riot was thus averted.

The Press condemns the importation of negroes at such a time as "indiscreet," but it fails to make the distinction between negroes "seeking work" to earn a living and imported gangs who could find plenty of work where they were, but were tempted by the offer of higher wages, while not suspecting the danger they were running.

But all this seems to show that while there is no prejudice against the negro as a laborer in the South, there is a great deal in the North, "after all these years of preaching."

THE OHIO KICKERS.

The Ohio kickers who call themselves "Bryan Democrats," received a rebuff from Gen. Sherwood, whom they proposed to nominate for Governor, who not only declined but informed them that he did not approve of the movement, and would not under any circumstances lend his name to it. These kicking Democrats, who are compromising Mr. Bryan by calling themselves "Bryan Democrats," are not only going against their party but they are going against the remonstrance of Mr. Bryan who has condemned this movement and urged all Democrats to stand by the State ticket and make the fight (on the points on which they differ) on Congressmen and in the Legislature which elects a United States Senator.

The men who are leading in this movement denounced as deserters the Democrats who in the past two elections opposed Bryan because they did not approve the money planks in the platforms, and now they are doing the very same thing themselves, opposing the nominees of their party because the platform doesn't suit them, when the points upon which they make their revolt have nothing to do with the State election. Of course they don't expect to elect their ticket, if they should succeed in finding men willing to put themselves up to be knocked down, and hence the only effect of running a ticket would be to take some votes from the regular Democratic ticket and to this extent help the Republicans. They know this, of course, and hence they are kicking not for the good of the Democratic party or out of devotion to Bryan or Bryan's principles, because he has condemned their action, but out of pure obstinacy, if not something worse.

Rural mail delivery boxes should be provided with hornet-proof attachments. Because his wasn't Rev. Mr. Derby, of Connecticut, had a hot time a few days ago. He went for his mail but instead of getting his mail he got a lot of hornets which had taken possession of the box and resented this encroachment. They got into his hair, beard, under his clothes, and when a hornet does that he means business. All the Rev. gentleman could do was run and yell "help," and he did both. He ran through the town and was followed by a crowd of people who supposed he had suddenly become crazy. They didn't overtake him until he had run two miles and jumped into a reservoir. Then they discovered what was the matter.

—— The Government draft of the new German tariff law has been published in Berlin, and has created a tremendous sensation. In the commercial circles of Berlin the agricultural schedules are described as monstrous, and they certainly show that the anti-American agitation which has been maintained so persistently for months past has borne abundant fruit. TEETHINA was first used by Dr. Charles J. TEETHINA (Teething Powders) counteracts the effect of hot weather and keeps the digestive organs in a healthy condition, and has saved the lives of thousands of children in the doctor's native State, where physicians prescribe and all mothers give it, and it is criminal in mothers of our section to allow their babes and little children to suffer and perhaps die when relief can be so easily obtained by giving TEETHINA. It costs only 25 cents at druggists; or mail 25 cents to C. J. Moffett, M. D., St. Louis, Mo †

Smith, post mistress, was sleeping in the building at the time, and though it was almost totally demolished she escaped with comparatively slight injuries. Mrs. Smith suspicions one or more parties who live near by with committing the deed. She has had considerable litigation of late with various parties of the neighborhood, and she formed the idea several days ago that certain of them intended doing her an injury. Especially did she think so after a note had been posted on the door of her residence, which notified her to leave in twenty days or twenty dynamiters would blow her away, or words to that effect.

— Lincolnton Journal: It is reported that a wind storm passed through the Little Mountain section one day last week and left less than a dozen trees standing on a tract of 50 acres of heavily timbered land. A hail storm is said to have passed at the same time parallel to the storm of wind and the crops in its path were totally destroyed.——East Lincolnton had a big burglar alarm Monday night. A courting young man stayed out until 12 o'clock. His father scantily attired, went out on the piazza to look for him. Just then the young man neared his home. A policeman was standing in the shadow of a tree. The young man saw him and dodged around him. Just then he caught sight of a figure in white upon his father's piazza. It flashed upon him that this was a burglar and the policeman was his confederate and picket. The young man aroused the neighbors who turned out with more guns and pistols than clothes and surrounded the house. It took the old man sometime to explain that he was the burglar.

For Over Fifty Years

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, and allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

In the six day bicycle races the pace tells terribly at the end. Man after man falls out exhausted. The victor wabbles wearily over the line. In the business race it's the same. Man after man drops out exhausted. The successful man is often a dyspeptic, unable to enjoy success. When the stomach is diseased there is not enough nutrition assimilated to sustain the body and repair the daily waste of tissues. The result is weakness, tending to collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food by which the body is built up with sound, healthy flesh.

"I have taken one bottle of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. C. M. Wilson, of Yadkin College, Davidson Co., N. C. "Have had no bad spells since I commenced taking your medicine—in fact, have not felt like the same man. Before I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' I could not eat anything without awful distress, but now I can eat anything I wish without having unpleasant feelings. Last summer our baby was teething and was so poor he was almost a skeleton. We gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and now he is as healthy and well as any child. I will speak a good word for your medicine whenever I have an opportunity."

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK July 29.—The cotton market opened steady with all months but July up three to five points. Following the call there was a period of nervousness with reactionary movements under room profit-taking, but before the noon hour the market had turned steady with local operators arrayed on the bull side. Trading all day was slim and almost entirely professional. Whereas the early Liverpool cables were a distinct disappointment, the late advices reported full recovery and a substantial gain on brisk general buying for both accounts. Buying orders were sent to representatives here, but this class of business was too small to cut much figure either way. Marked firmness in the New Orleans market, dry weather reports from the Southwest, a forecast for continued drought in Texas and small receipts, all helped to hold the local market steady and to check selling for either account. There was a fairly good demand for desirable grades of spot cotton in all markets, with spinners and exporters competing for supplies. Near the close room operators became discontented by the poor public interest displayed, and in selling out sent prices off to below the opening figures. The close was barely steady with prices net sixteen points lower to three points higher.

In the Gloaming.

In the gloaming, oh, my darling,
Waited I alone for thee
Where the roses in the garden
Bloomed in beauty, fancy free.
As I listened to the sighing
Quivering through the apple trees,
All at once a plaintive moaning
Gave me blood a gentle freeze.

In the gloaming, oh, my darling,
Came your father's prize bull pup,
And I guessed in half a second
Just what sort of game was up.
Off I bolted like the dickens
With a frenzied kind of sprawl,
And it was a neck or nothing
Race to reach the garden wall.

By that garden wall, my darling,
We engaged in fierce affray,
And I very literally
Had to tear myself away.
What precisely happened, darling,
I can scarcely mention here,
But I'll own I walked home backward
In the gloaming, oh, my dear!

WIPED OUT THE GANG

THE BATTLE THAT EXTERMINATED THE EXELBY OUTLAWS.

A Close Quarters Fight With Guns That Won For Captain Bartlett, Who Was In the Thick of the Fray, the Sioux Name of "Wounded Knee."

"How we wiped the famous Exelby gang of outlaws out of existence has never been told except in official government reports," said Captain Charles E. Bartlett, who used to be a government scout and deputy United States marshal at Deadwood, to a group of friends

"The gang had struck terror to every Indian on the reservation who had any property and to every ranchman in Dakota. I was at that time, in 1881, in charge of the Pine Ridge and Rosebud agencies. I had been placed there because of my familiarity with the Sioux country. Only a short time after I arrived I was ordered to exterminate the Exelbys at any cost.

"Affairs reached a crisis when the gang got away with 50 of the ponies belonging to a friendly chief who had been hunting just east of the Black Hills in company with a party of his friends. A severe winter was just coming on, and the Indians felt that they had little protection from lawlessness if the troops of Uncle Sam could not stop such bold thefts as driving away all their horses.

"The theft was speedily traced to the Exelby gang. Their stronghold was soon after located on the Little Missouri. We notified the sheriffs at Miles City, Mon., and they caught one of the gang. Four of the ponies were found grazing around his campfire. A special deputy was sent to bring the prisoner to Deadwood, but before he left Miles City he received word that the rest of the Exelbys were lying in wait for him and meant to rescue the prisoner if they killed all the deputies in the country.

"Ryan heliographed for a posse to meet him near Stone's ranch at the crossing of the Little Missouri. I took the Williams brothers, Jack O'Hara, Al Raymond, Doc Babcock and, in a blinding snowstorm, headed the next morning for Stone's ranch. Not often in the history of fights on the frontier has so well known a set of scouts been gathered as rode on that campaign.

"The snow was a foot deep, and we were so cold that before we had finished the 60 mile ride the blood on our spurs was frozen. In fact, we were obliged to use our spurs cruelly to reach there at all.

"We arrived at the ranch about 10 o'clock at night and told old man Stone to care for our horses. He told us all we dared hope to find out about the Exelbys. At Shuster's, as the old man called it, there were three habitations, forming a triangle, each about 200 yards from the other. First came Stone's ranch, then the saloon and third the cabin where Shuster lived. Stone had told us that Exelby and five of his men had arrived at the saloon in the middle of the day and had been drinking and carousing ever since. This accounted for their being off their guard.

"We decided to wait till the next morning. About 9 o'clock we saw six of them start with their packs and animals for the road. They put their pack mules ahead as they approached the crossing which bridged the river a quarter of a mile distant. We trapped them in a ravine back of Stone's ranch, calling a halt as soon as we thought that we had them dead to rights. Exelby yelled out something about a warmer climate, but we had no intention of taking his advice and leaving where we were. We were seven to six, anyway, and when he snapped back his retort to our call to halt we opened fire.

"We had hardly pulled a trigger when the bullets began to whistle around us from the other side of the gully, and we woke to the fact that Billy the Kid, who had staid behind in the saloon to fix his saddle, had arrived just in time to join in the exchange of shots. His first bullet killed Jack O'Hara, one of the most famous scouts who ever crossed the plains. The second tore through Jack Williams' shoulder and the third shattered my right knee.

"On the other side Exelby was killed. Tilly, another noted desperado, crawled with a shattered arm and broken ankle to Shuster's and begged for mercy. When I was hit I fell, but managed to crawl to the top of the ravine and put an extra hole in Campbell's nose. It generally took years to rid the frontier of two such outlaws as these, and I felt that we were working fast. As Campbell fell from the saddle his spur left a deep cut in the leather, which I often show with interest. I have the saddle, the belt and his side arms. The battle was turning in our favor, and after another volley we saw that not another live outlaw was visible. Even the Kid had given up his rear attack and had disappeared. We ran across him alone a few weeks later, and Fred Williams had no scruples about ending his life.

"Doc Babcock bandaged my knee, and we rigged a sled with which we managed to carry Jack O'Hara's body back to Spearfish. Tuttle, one of the worst characters of Exelby's gang, we found only slightly wounded. We took him to Spearfish also, but his lifeless body was found frozen stiff the next morning hanging from a tree. My wound was not painful, and I rode my horse as far as Spearfish. There the doctor said I would have to have my leg amputated. I objected and still have two legs, if one is a little weak."

From the date of the battle with the Exelbys Captain Bartlett was known as "Wounded Knee" among the Sioux.—New York Sun.

Bangs a Prolific Joke Writer.

Carl Hauser, who was the editor of the German edition of Puck, told a reminiscence of John Kendrick Bangs, editor of Harper's Weekly. It treats of a time when the distinguished Yonkers man was writing jokes for Puck in the early eighties and could turn out more of them in 24 hours than any other man in that particular line.

"One day," said Mr. Hauser, "the young man whose duty it was to read all the jokes sent to the English edition of Puck came to me much agitated and perplexed.

"'Here,' said he, 'I have received 100 jokes today from that man Bangs. And he sends me all the time 100 each day. Why, he must be worked to death; his mind must be nearly worn out.'

And Mr. Hauser answered: "It is easy work for him. In fact, it is mere re-creation."—New York World.

LIMESTONE COLLEGE, a high-grade institution of learning, invites the patronage of the Southern people on the ground of its high standard, which is the equal of that of any college in the United States whether for men or women. Its thorough instruction, which is given by a large and able Faculty, using university methods, and its persistent and successful endeavor to develop in its students the highest culture, combined with refinement of manners and elevation of character. The institution possesses a location unsurpassed for beauty and healthfulness in the entire South, buildings thoroughly equipped for college work, a splendid library, excellent laboratories, and all the material accessories of study. The College invites inspection of all these advantages. But the emphasis is laid upon the WORK DONE. Full library, scientific, musical and artistic courses. Besides the degree of A. B., the degree of A. M. is given for advanced graduate work. THE WINNIE DAVIS SCHOOL OF HISTORY, endorsed by all the great leaders of the South, by the Legislature of South Carolina, the Legislature of Maryland, and the great Confederate Reunion at Louisville, gives each rate instruction in Southern History and Southern Literature. For further information, apply to Capt. H. F. Grimth, Senior Professor, or to the President.

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of every-day living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, languor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, COCELIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 30.

AFFAIRS IN THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Governor for the Island of Leyte—Officer Sentenced—Chaffee's Orders—The Santa Cruz Robbery.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, July 29.—Major Henry Allen of the forty-third volunteers, who was some time since appointed governor of the island of Leyte, as been chosen chief of the insular constabulary and will proceed with the organization of that force.

Captain Spellman of the 43rd has been sentenced to two years in prison for encouraging trading at the closed ports.

General Chaffee has issued an order that the troops shall wear their coats outside of barracks. The order dispenses with the use of flannel shirts which have heretofore been the customary outer garments. Officers are ordered to wear khaki for all duty and swords always when actively commanding. White or dress suits are permitted to be worn on social occasions.

Upon visiting the posts unexpectedly General Chaffee found an astonishing variety in the uniforms and a great laxness regarding the clothing of the troops. Two native policemen have been killed in the suburbs of Cebu. Firing upon the town continues. Provost Davis is conducting an investigation.

The detectives employed in investigating the Santa Cruz robbery have found no definite clue nor have they learned the amount the thieves secured. It appears that the sergeant of the guard was intoxicated and that one sentry was detailed to guard the five entrances to the guard house.

An investigation is pending in the case of Lieutenant McCarty, of the 43d regiment, because of the loss of $1,000 public money while being conveyed from Aparri to Manila.

WEST POINT CADETS.

Names of Candidates Who Successfully Passed Examination and Were Admitted to the Military Academy.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WEST POINT, N. Y., July 29.—The following candidates who reported last week, successfully passed examination and were to-day admitted to the military academy as cadets:

Charles C. Bankhead, Texas; Gibson T. Berry, Kentucky; Henry T. Burgin, Florida; Charles J. Kennerly, Tennessee; Joseph L. Landry, Louisiana; Clarence K. Lyman, Hawii; Felix W. Motlow, Tennessee; St. Clair Newbern, North Carolina; Charles L. Scott, Alabama; Herndon Sharp, Louisiana; Don D. Strong, Georgia; Thomas S. Roberts, Tennessee; Calvin P. Titus, at large; Bloxam Ward, Florida.

The number which passed beats all records. Titus is the young man who was the first to scale the wall at Pekin. Strong was on duty in the Philippines when notified of appointment and Lyman, of Hawaii, is the first cadet to be appointed from the government's new possessions. The corps now numbers 464 cadets, within 18 of the full number provided for.

JEFFRIES-RUHLIN FIGHT.

May be Pulled Off in Savannah at the Fair in October.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, GA., July 29.—The Savannah Athletic Club is making a strong effort to secure the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight, which it desires to pull off here during the State fair in October. The club has ample financial backing to make good all it offers. It has offered a purse of $15,000 or will give the fighters 70 per cent. of the receipts and 75 per cent. of the picture privilege. Indeed, the club has announced that it will meet the legitimate offer of any sporting club of standing in the country, and post a substantial forfeit to guarantee performance of contract. Al. Murray, well known in New York and Northern sporting circles, is associated with the club in the management of the affair. It is believed all legal obstacles can be removed.

TRADE WITH GERMANY.

The United States Stands Far Above Any Other Country.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Ambassador White has made the subject of United States trade with Germany the basis of a special report to the State Department. He dwells with the matter broadly and presents interesting figures. For instance he shows that in the course of ten years the United States has advanced from fourth to first place on the basis of goods shipped to Germany, the total value of such goods and natural products in 1900 being $366,750,000. The United States thus stands far above any other country in this trade. On the other hand, in the matter of goods imported from Germany, the United States has stood in third place without change for the ten years, the value of the imports in 1900 being $104,482,000.

PERSISTENT AND STEADY SHOWERS.

The Drought Broken in States of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Illinois.

FARMERS ARE REJOICING.

All Late Corn Saved in Illinois and a Good Yield Assured—Kansas Will Raise Nearly Half a Crop—Iowa Will Produce 80 Per Cent.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KANSAS CITY, MO., July 29.—The drought has been broken in Kansas and Missouri by good rains which have fallen in frequent and heavy showers since Sunday morning. The outlook for a continued fall to-night and to morrow is good.

Colonel George W. Veale, who has watched conditions closely in Kansas for a score of years, says to-day that Kansas would raise nearly half a crop of corn. He said the people would raise sufficient forage feed for all the cattle now on the range in Kansas. The ranges will greatly benefit.

Already the brown prairies are changing to green, and farmers and stockmen say the landscape will show a pleasing contrast within the next two week.

It is the steady and persistent showers that have prevailed since Sunday morning that have brought the needed rain and improved the agricultural conditions. They have extended all over Kansas and the western half of Missouri. Several points in these States are presenting two inches and more of rainfall.

DES MOINES, IOWA, July 29.—Rain fell all over Iowa Sunday, varying from .72 of an inch to four inches. The average fall was 1.63 inches. Crop service reports and private advices to grain dealers agree that with normal conditions the State produce 80 per cent. of the average corn crop.

PEORIA, ILL., July 29.—Heavy rains Sunday night have caused rejoicing to the farmers, as the late corn has been saved, and a good yield is assured. Farmers to day commenced planting for winter wheat.

ANARCHISTS IN NEW JERSEY.

Celebration of the Assassination of King Humbert of Italy by the Friends of Bresci.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 29.—Batholdi Hall, in Paterson, N. J., was packed to day by the friends of Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert of Italy, this being the anniversary of the deed. The street in front of the hall was also filled with people. It is not claimed that all who turned out are anarchists, the supposition being that many were present from curiosity. Pedro Esteve, editor of a paper here, outdid his previous efforts in lauding Bresci. He was encouraged by frequent cheers.

"I wish every country had a Bresci," said Esteve, and the sentiment was vociferously applauded. "Down with monarchy! Down with empires!" he continued, and the cheering was accentuated.

The speaker, referring to Bresci's companions, Quintocarello and Lami, who sailed with him, said they sailed for the same purpose.

"They all went to do that which Bresci did" said the speaker. Having said that the last two are in prison, the speaker continued: "The question we ask the United States government is, were these men citizens and where are they now."

It appeared from further remarks that two others had been selected to do the work which Bresci did, but they failed. One of them, Matteo committed suicide. The other, Spierondo was let off on condition that he kill a shop foreman who was objectionable to the Italians.

COMMEMORATIVE SERVICES.

First Anniversary of the Tragic Death of King Humbert of Italy.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ROME, July 29.—The first anniversary of the tragic death of King Humbert (who was assassinated at Menza, July 29th last, by Gaetano Bresci, an anarchist) was celebrated to day by commemorative services throughout Italy. Rome is the centre of the observances and there are 100,000 visitors here on a pilgrimage to the tomb of King Humbert in the Pantheon. In addition, members of the royal family, senators and deputies assembled at the capitol to take part in the ceremonies. The streets were crowded and the weather was fine.

CLAIMS HE WAS DRUNK.

Man Arrested in Muncie, Ind., for Throwing Acid in a Woman's Face.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MUNCIE, IND., July 29.—The police this evening arrested Peter Tilberry for throwing carbolic acid in the face of Mary Torrence last night. Tilberry has been arrested on the charge of mayhem, which is punishable by imprisonment from two to fourteen years. His victim will lose one eye from the assault. Tilberry is 48 years old and wanted to marry the woman. She refused and he dashed the acid into her face from a can concealed under his coat. He claims he was drunk at the time of committing the crime.

KANSAS JOINTS WRECKED.

Rioting at Colwich Caused by a Party of Threshers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WITCHITA, KAS., July 29.—Eight threshing machines crews reached the town of Colwich in this county yesterday and because they could not get liquor on account of the Sunday law, they smashed five "joints" and wrecked a number of pumps.

The citizens organized a party to cause their arrest, but the threshers made them retreat. The rioting was resumed to-day when the citizens again tried to arrest the threshers, but again they had to give up. The sheriff has been asked to come at once to the scene.

STEEL WORKERS STRIKE PROBABLY AT AN END.

Conference of Leaders Will be Held This Morning—Believed That Terms Will be Ratified

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, July 29.—Everybody is on the qui vive to night in strike circles and the coming conference of the leaders of the two contending forces is looked forward to with mingled hope and fear. Hope, however predominates, and peace is confidently expected by the majority of those interested.

The executive committee of the Amalgamated Association will meet in the headquarters of the organization at 10 o'clock to morrow morning or as soon thereafter as possible and take up the proposition s of the United States Steel Corporation for a settlement of the steel workers strike.

This statement was made to day by Secretary Williams, of the Amalgamated Association. Beyond this, he declined to discuss the strike in any form. There was no change in the position of the two contestants to-day. Both sides held firmly to the plan of watching each other. The officials of the Wood mill of the American Sheet Steel Company made no attempt to start the plant, and indications pointed to their remaining inactive until the strike negotiations are decided one way or the other. The first report of the day that the American Tin Plate Company was making an effort to start the Dempler plant with non-union men and that one set of rolls was being operated, was afterward explained as being a rumor that started from the fact that the company had some men at work repairing the plant, with the expectation that the strike will be settled shortly.

Believed That Terms Will be Ratified.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The officials of the steel companies now here preserve silence as to the conference of Saturday between the leaders on either side of the strike and the possibility of a settlement. It is believed, however, that the terms of peace outlined on Saturday will be ratified by the executive board of the Amalgamated Association on Tuesday and that there will be an early resumption of work. Both sides are silent as to the terms of the new pact, but various claims of victory are being made in behalf of the strikers. On that point a man interested in the steel trade said to the Associated Press:

"Take some salt with these claims of victory. Wait until the new agreement is signed and its contents published before you award any decision as to gains on either side."

President Schwab was at his office as usual to-day but declined to talk about the conference on the prospective settlement. J. P. Morgan is believed to have gone to Bar Harbor.

OKLAHOMA'S LAND LOTTERY.

One Thousand of the Choice Claims Awarded Yesterday—The Capital Prize Winners.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

EL RENO, OKLAHOMA, July 29,—Oklahoma's great land lottery was begun to-day and when the commissioners appointed by the Federal government adjourned the drawing for the day, one thousand of the choice of the thirteen thousand 160-acre claims in the Comanche country had been awarded.

The first name drawn from the wheels was that of Stephen A. Holcomb, of Paul's Valley, I. T., for a homestead in the El Reno district and the second, Leonard Lamb, of Augusta, O. T. These two men select the two choice claims in this district. The capital prize winners however, proved to be James R. Wood of Weatherford, O. T., whose name was the first to come from the the Lawton district wheel and Miss Mattie H. Beals, of Wichita, Kas., who drew the second number in that district. They will have the privilege of making the first filings in the Lawton district and undoubtedly will choose the two quarter sections adjoining that town. These are considered the most valuable in the territory and are, it is estimated, worth from $30,000 to $40,000.

The day was one of keen excitement, replete with interesting scenes. It is estimated that fully 25,000 persons witnessed the drawing. The immense throng was wrought up to the highest pitch. The drawing of the first names was followed by a mighty shout.

AFFRAY IN A MINING TOWN.

Two Men Were Killed and Another Man Wounded in a Street Fight at Islion, Tennessee.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 29.—A special from Crossville tells of the killing of Policeman Pass and W. E. Knox and the fatal wounding of Shirley, son of the policeman, in a street fight at Islion, Tenn., a mining town. Policeman Pass went into a section of the place known as Negro Town, to quell a disturbance. He became engaged in a row with Knox and shot him dead. Chief of Police Lowery and E. E. Swafford started for the scene of the trouble, but were met by Shirley Pass son of Policeman Pass They had words and the officer were ordered back by Pass who flourished a pistol. Swafford drew his gun and shot Shirley through the left lung, fatally injuring him. Both Lowrey and Swafford surrendered. Upon hearing of his son's wounding, Policeman Pass pursued Lowrey and Swafford, and opened fire on Safford. Without hitting Swafford, Pass attempted to kill Lowrey, but the chief fired on him, killing him instantly.

STORM IN NEW JERSEY.

Tornado Swept Over Newark—One Man Injured by Lightning.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 29.—A tornado swept over Newark, N. J., and vicinity at 4 o'clock to-day. One man was seriously injured by lightning. Outside the town, in the path of the storm, trees were torn by up the roots and roofs were torn from houses. The roads are impassable from fallen trees and washouts, and telephone wires are down. The storm came out of the Northwest suddenly. As the funnel-shaped grey cloud approached a heavy black cloud rolled up behind it and burst. A heavy shower of hail followed.

AN INSULT TO THE GERMAN FLAG

Forcible Arrest of a Passenger On the Hamburg-American Steamer Allegheny.

BY COLOMBIAN AUTHORITIES.

Ship Held at Cartagena and Searched. Man Dragged From the Vessel Despite Protest of Captain That He Was Protected by German Flag.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Allegheny, which arrived here to day, reported that she was held in the harbor of Cartagena, Colombia, for twelve hours. Passengers on the Allegheny report that Abel Murrillo was arrested on the ship at Cartagena and taken ashore by the Colombian authorities. Murrillo protested against his arrest, claiming that he was entitled to the protection of the German flag.

When the vessel arrived at Cartagena she was ordered detained by the authorities there. The captain protested that he was sailing under the German flag and that no official of Colombia had a right to stop the vessel for any purpose whatever. This protest was unheeded, however, and search was made for Murrillo, who was found on deck. He declared he would not be arrested, and running to one of the ship's masts, he seized the German flag which was lying there and wrapped it about him. Then he stood forward and cried out: "I am under the protection of the German flag, and you have no right to arrest me."

According to the passengers on the Allegheny the Colombian officers, notwithstanding the protest, seized the man and dragged him from the vessel.

According to a signed statement made by three of the Allegheny's passengers, Murrillo left the United States about four months ago on a passport signed by the Colombian minister in Washington. On his arrival at Savanilla he was arrested and taken to Bogota, where he was released on the understanding that he would sail on the vessel for the United States. This Murillo did, boarding the Allegheny at Savanilla. He expressed fears that he would be arrested at Cartegena and when the vessel arrived at that port he refused to go ashore when word was brought that the governor wanted to see him. His arrest followed. The statement made by the passengers then says that Capt Lowe, of the Allegheny, protested against the arrest, saying it was against international law and at the same time the captain told the mate to put the German flag on the gangway so that the Colombian officers would have to tread on it if they took Murrillo. The arrest did not take place at this time, and the police withdrew on the captain's protest. Later, however, the ship's clearance papers were refused and the statement was made that they would not be furnished until Murrillo was surrendered. A signed statement concerning the incident then says:

"The captain then went on land, and after a while returned with more policemen and we then thought that he was going to give up the passenger in exchange for his papers. The police went to Murrillo and tearing from him that 'dirty rag,' as they called the flag of Kaiser Wilhelm, took the prisoner from the ship."

This statement is signed by Edward J. White, a British subject; Ame Van Den Bogaerde, a Belgian, and Chas. E. Pope, a citizen of the United States.

BIG FIRE AT TILLERY, N. C.

Large Department Store Burned and Railroad Property Saved With Difficulty.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

TILLERY, N. C., July 29.—This morning at 1 o'clock the immense department store of W. H. Randolph & Co., at this place was burned to the ground, and entire contents destroyed. The loss is $15,000 with $4,500 insurance. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been incendiary, and blood hounds from the State farm near by were put on the trail of the firebugs, but with no result as yet. The fire was very close to the railroad depot, and as the wind was blowing toward the station, it was with difficulty that several box cars and other railroad property was saved from burning. A special engine was sent down in a rush from Weldon to remove the cars, but when it arrived the danger was over and the wind had shifted. Quantities of water were thrown on the cars and track scales and in this way they were saved.

RACES AT NEWPORT.

Columbia Defeated the Constitution and Won the $1,000 Cup.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 29.—The Columbia to-day defeated the Constitution, boat for boat, in a splendid race by two minutes and fifty four seconds and won the $1,000 cup presented by Col. John Jacob Astor. Her victory was decisive and convincing. The behavior of the Constitution on the other hand was disappointing in the extreme, and Mr. Duncan announced this evening that his boat would not take part in further races until everything had been altered.
